Thank you: Feeling Grateful:

Huge thanks to everyone who helped to create a beautiful Memorial service for the Pinsent family here on Monday afternoon. From the carpark to the kitchen, the IT and the behind-the-scenes resources sharing...you are a great team to work with. Much appreciated. Jill (NB: I'll be away for this weekend, walking the Gippsland Camino and practicing some self-care!)

Thank You:

To all at Eltham Montmorency Uniting Church.

Thank you all so much for the care and support I have received over the last many months. Also, a big thank you from my family for all the work put into making Craig's funeral service such a special day for us all.

Beryl.

Rev. Kim Cain – Retiring:

Rev Kim Cain was Minister at Montmorency from 1982 to 1990, a very significant time in Kim's ministry.

On Sunday 3rd May Rev Kim Cain is concluding his ministry with St Leonard's Uniting Church, Brighton and retiring from full time ministry.

Following our morning service at Brighton at 10am with the Release of Ties, there will be a light lunch at 12.30pm to celebrate Kim's ministry and an opportunity to thank him for his contribution to the Uniting Church.

We would welcome any members of Eltham-Montmorency Uniting who would like to join with us in recognising Kim's extensive ministry in congregations, as the Director of the Synod Communications Unit and at the ecumenical level.

We recognise that you may have a morning service, but members of Eltham-Montmorency who remember Kim may like to attend the lunch.

For catering purposes, it would be helpful if those coming could let us know by Wednesday 22nd April by emailing contactstleonards@gmail.com.
